MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: House Armed Services Committee Worldwide Briefing,
          1 February 1985

    1. With Chairman Emeritus Melvin Price presiding, I counted 17 Members: Bennett, Daniel, Schroeder, Byron, Skelton, Hertel, Sisisky, Dickinson, Holt, Hillis, Badham, Stump, Courter, Hopkins, Kasich (for last three minutes), Sweeney and Bateman.

    2. For about 1 1/2 hours the Director and NIOs read from their prepared texts, then the Chairman solicited questions.
Besides Representative Daniel's query as to whether there has been an improvement in HUMINT capability, the only other queries came from Representative Beverly Byron who asked about:

    3. Action: Representative Daniel expressed a desire for whatever unclassified reading materials we might suggest on intelligence, particularly a dictionary or glossary of terms.
NIO George Montgomery particularly suggested a military hardware dictionary called JCS Pub 1 (George has one) which Representative Daniel expressed interest in.

Director, Office of Legislative Liaison

N.B. The text used by the DCI had not been carefully proofread. There is a textual error on page 40, repetition on pages 43 and 46. The Director and Bob Vickers did trip a bit in reading. If used again, some fixing is in order.
